Spring Term Newsletter Issue 14 - 11th February 2022

Message from Ms Jarrett

Dear Parents & Carers

As we draw to the close of our first Spring Half Term I continue to be incredibly impressed with the dedication and hard work of all our staff to provide a fun and challenging curriculum for all our children. We have had various visitors in our school this half term and they have all been very impressed with the wide variety of activities that are covered here.

This week has been Internet Safety Week and I just wanted to remind all parents and carers about the Online Safety tab which is under the parents section on our website.

One of the key issues which has been recognised is that many of our children play games such as Roblox which do allow interactions with strangers. It is really important that we are all aware of the potential dangers that are present when children engage in online activities.

If you feel that you have any queries or questions regarding online safety which are not addressed in our website section, please do not hesitate to ask in school.

This will be the last Newsletter before the half term holiday and I hope that everybody has a wonderful break with the chance of some sunshine (without the frost in the morning!).

With very best wishes

Caroline Jarrett
